Introduction

The Relocation Chart

A relocation chart is simply an ordinary natal horoscope moved to a different location. It's a chart cast for the same cosmic instant of birth, but looked at from another location, as if the birth happened there. The planets' sign positions all remain the same, but they will appear in different houses at different locations, thus altering their strengths and areas of influence. So, if you were born in New York, for instance, and then moved to Paris, your relocation chart would have any first house planets shifted about 90 degrees clockwise into the tenth house; tenth house planets would be shifted into the seventh house, and so on, thus giving your natal chart a whole new look for your Parisian adventures. In fact, if it turns out to be a significant improvement, you might even want to move there. Or, perhaps you might just want to visit when you are doing the kind of things that your Paris relocation chart favors -- work, play, health, creativity -- depending on your planets' relocated house positions.

The Relocation Map

Although any one relocation chart opens up new possibilities for you when you travel, if you put a lot of them together and trace them on a map you get a set of marked-out roads of opportunity that stretch around the world, each of which will add strength and emphasis to specific parts of your personality and potential. There is a geographical ribbon running many thousands of miles around the globe, every mile of which gives you Mars rising, adding to your energy and individual power whenever you are on it. Another gives you the Sun rising, another, the Moon, and so on. Around the other side of the earth are similar routes on which your planets are always exactly setting, on the cusp of the seventh house. Similarly, there are north-south pathways each 12,000 miles long where individual planets are on your Midheaven or IC if you go to them. Together, they make up an often-intersecting set of personal highways, a grid of 40 planetary lines that mark out your chart's strongest places for relocation, where one or more natal planets are on the angles.

And if that's not enough potential roads to travel on, there are a total of 180 global lines that depict where your 45 major planetary midpoints are on the angles, adding a subtle substructure to your planetary potential. Altogether, they depict your own personal World Wide Web of highways and byways that add special strengths to your chart and promise new heightened adventure and return for simply taking a trip. You'll find that there's hardly a place on the planet you can go without discovering a new slant on life, a new take on what you already have working inside you.

Windows Of Opportunity

Finally, as your personal progressions and transits move along and affect your natal chart, these same changes will be touching your relocation chart as well, but often quite differently. This will mean that certain parts of the world open up as unique windows of opportunity for a limited, but golden time. A look at these will tell you not only where to travel, but when is the optimum time to be there as well. Find out the best of where and when, and then book your ticket, with the stars on your side.

The Armchair Traveler

You don't have to actually show up at a strong relocation place to have it affect you. You may well find that areas where you have locality planets, midpoints, transits, or progressions on the angles have a way of waltzing into your life unannounced, or that you'll find yourself dealing with people who live there in a way that is described by your chart in that locality. In the era of electronic world travel, you may not need to go out of your door to find your different relocation charts working for you.

Angles in Signs

Ascendant in Scorpio

You've got everything to gain here from hiding something -- or at least pretending to. Playing an intense and somewhat mysterious role comes naturally and will get you the most attention with the least risk. You're at your best when smoldering, with just enough smoke to show there's fire down below.

Midheaven in Leo

A reputation for warmth and good times will precede you here, so all you have to do is live up to it. Don't pass up a party, and showing off your talents of the heart will get you everything. You can get away with things you never could at home, simply by wearing a smile and inviting others to do the same.

Natal Planets on Angles

Any planet on one of the angles (Ascendant, MC, Descendant, IC) of your relocation chart will be greatly strengthened when you are at the place of relocation, very much like if it were on the angles of your natal chart. If the Sun is on an angle, you'll have more confidence; if Mars is there you'll have more energy, and so on. Moreover, you don't have to actually go there to get the effect. Having a planet on a relocated angle will accentuate that place for you even if you are only doing business with people there over the phone. You have an accentuated quality to people in such places that you may not have elsewhere.

Natal Sun/Mars On DS (Strong)

You're more than likely to attract strong, energetic types here who may wear you out at first, until you realize that there's support to lean on and you don't really have to hold up all your end of the weight. There's plenty to go around, but you may have to be willing to play second fiddle now and again to fully reap the advantage.

Others bring out a positive "can do" attitude in you while here, but if applied too forcefully, you could become involved in power struggles with others.

Natal Mercury Sxt MC (Strong)

A great place for you to study and learn. Business activities are also favored because communications tend to be clear and unambiguous. Contracts and negotiations tend to go smoothly.

Anything you say can and will be used for you around here, and what you say immediately goes up the masthead like a flag. Not everyone may salute, but there will be no mistaking it for another's banner. Career situations have the benefit of pre-established understanding, allowing you to get down to brass tacks more quickly.

Mercury in Eighth House

A penchant for puzzles and the ability to solve them is likely to come upon you here, like there is something in the landscape that challenges the mind and asks you to find the key. You could be looking for new resources, which will come not in physical form but in a whole new concept of how you put it into words, a concept that is, in fact, very old.

Natal Moon/Sun On DS (Strong)

Another heart, another soul.

Most likely you feel drawn to this area, even if you don't know why. A good place to express yourself and incorporate many different sides of yourself into your life style.

If you go here seeking your heart, you will likely find it in the heart and soul of another. No guarantee of success the moment you arrive, but that's the feeling you'll likely have about the place. As if it is essentially special to someone nearest and dearest to you (who?), but you're not sure why. Obviously, therefore, a great place for partnerships and linkups in general.

Natal Sun Qcx AS (Strong)

You don't have to strain to throw your weight around here -- just let it flow from the heart and you'll seem like you've got it all going for you. What you look like supports who you really are inside, so all you have to do is be yourself and everything will fall into place. Play it like you like it.

Sun in Eighth House

There's something in the landscape here for you, some kind of buried treasure you may have to dig around for. There's a certain appeal of the mysterious, something deeper you can strive for if you put your attention to it. Somebody owes you something here -- and that somebody might be your inner self.

Natal Neptune Qcx DS (Strong)

You have imagination -- your own and others' -- going for you here, and playing parts may come quite naturally to you, without having to give up your own true identity. A sense of what people would like to see you as comes naturally, and so does your natural ability to actually fit the idealized mold.

Neptune in First House

You may find a fine line here between making a better than expected impression and being misunderstood. People are more likely than usual to project their own images on you, so you may be playing a part in their eyes you are unaware of. We are all actors in each other's plays, but particularly so for you here, so mind your audience carefully.

Natal Mercury/Uranus On MC (Medium)

Spur-of-the-moment speeches.

Your thinking becomes more creative while in this geographic area. You can get an entirely new perspective on how to pursue your goals, and you can come up with inventive, new approaches to your work. You may also find that it is much easier to come up with a new idea than it is to successfully implement it, and it sometimes requires more patience than you have to successfully execute an idea. You are a bit impulsive and impatient at times here, and you should be careful and conservative when driving to avoid accidents.

This place is likely full of surprises and will make you respond in kind with flash inspirations and quick repartees. Don't expect to ponder a continuing thread, as you're more likely to come up with surprise approaches and reversals of field appropriate to the moment. If people think you're fickle, they'll change their minds....

Natal Sun/Uranus On MC (Medium)

If you live in this geographic area, you are likely to find that your job and career take unexpected twists and turns. You have a great deal of creativity and independence in your work, but the lack of stability can be unnerving.

If you find yourself a bit on the sudden side, with changes of heart from moment to moment, it's natural here -- but it also goes on your record, so don't run for office on your flip-flops. But don't hide them, either. True inspiration knows not constancy or consistency, only content and creativity, wherever the chips may fall.

Natal Neptune/Pluto On AS (Medium)

Fundamental visions.

In this geographic area deep longings and your deepest dreams and visions come to the surface. You feel a need to follow your dream, and you find it difficult to live and work in an environment that is too mundane and uninspiring. Be wary of a tendency to become involved with people who are inspired and imaginative, but emotionally unbalanced.

Your beliefs may be a necessity here, or you may find others trying to impose theirs. Spiritual hammers are quite real enough to drive a nail, so avoid situations where crossed convictions could become a cross to bear. Finding fundamental visions that are shared is the fondest hope for the finish line.

Natal Sun/Jupiter On DS (Medium)

You are likely to be very popular here, and you are supported and encouraged by the local community. You might often meet people who are grand, generous, and outgoing in this location.

You can find yourself overwhelmed with generosity here if you're willing to play someone else's game and let them elaborate on the next move. People are willing to invest in you because you encourage an already positive attitude and pat them on the back. Let a little ego go, get a lot back in return, with spiraling benefits.

Natal Saturn/Pluto On MC (Medium)

Very heavy and demanding responsibilities at work may feel overwhelming. This geographic area is one where you find that you are called upon to take on important tasks. Life may become too filled with a sense of struggle or you could become too narrowly obsessed by your problems or goals.

There may be an air of sadness, even tragedy here, which you may discover when you arrive, or even bring to the place by the new light you throw on things. Sensitivity to the situation will be essential, so you are seen as a solution, not the problem itself. Definitely not vacationland, but a place for unavoidable business.

Natal Mercury/Mars On DS (Mild)

Talk, talk, talk will get you everywhere.

You are mentally stimulated here, but a little more inclined to arguments and disagreements with others. A good place for studying, learning, and writing, but you must exhibit some patience and self-control to maintain harmonious relationships.

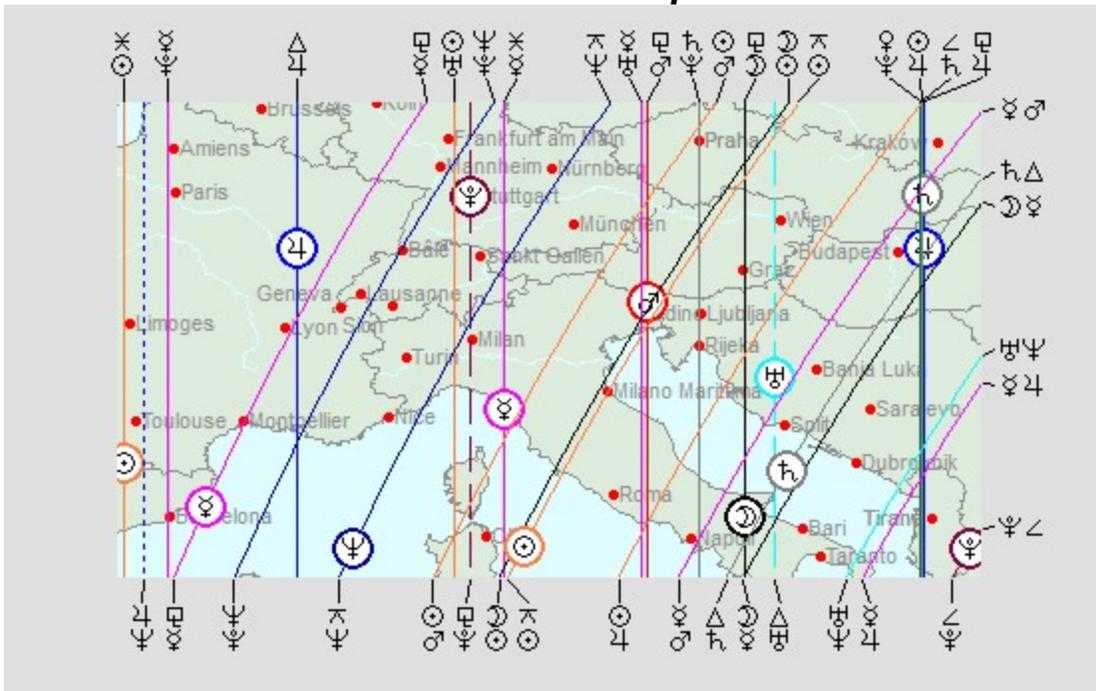

You may find it hard to get a word in edgewise here, as you may attract and encourage high-energy, motivated conversation that just won't quit. It may keep you up at night, but you won't be bored, plus you'll probably learn a lot. Just don't expect (or even try) to keep up your end, which at times may not even be noticed.

Paran Latitude Lines

Mercury-Jupiter Latitude Line at 46N21'38"

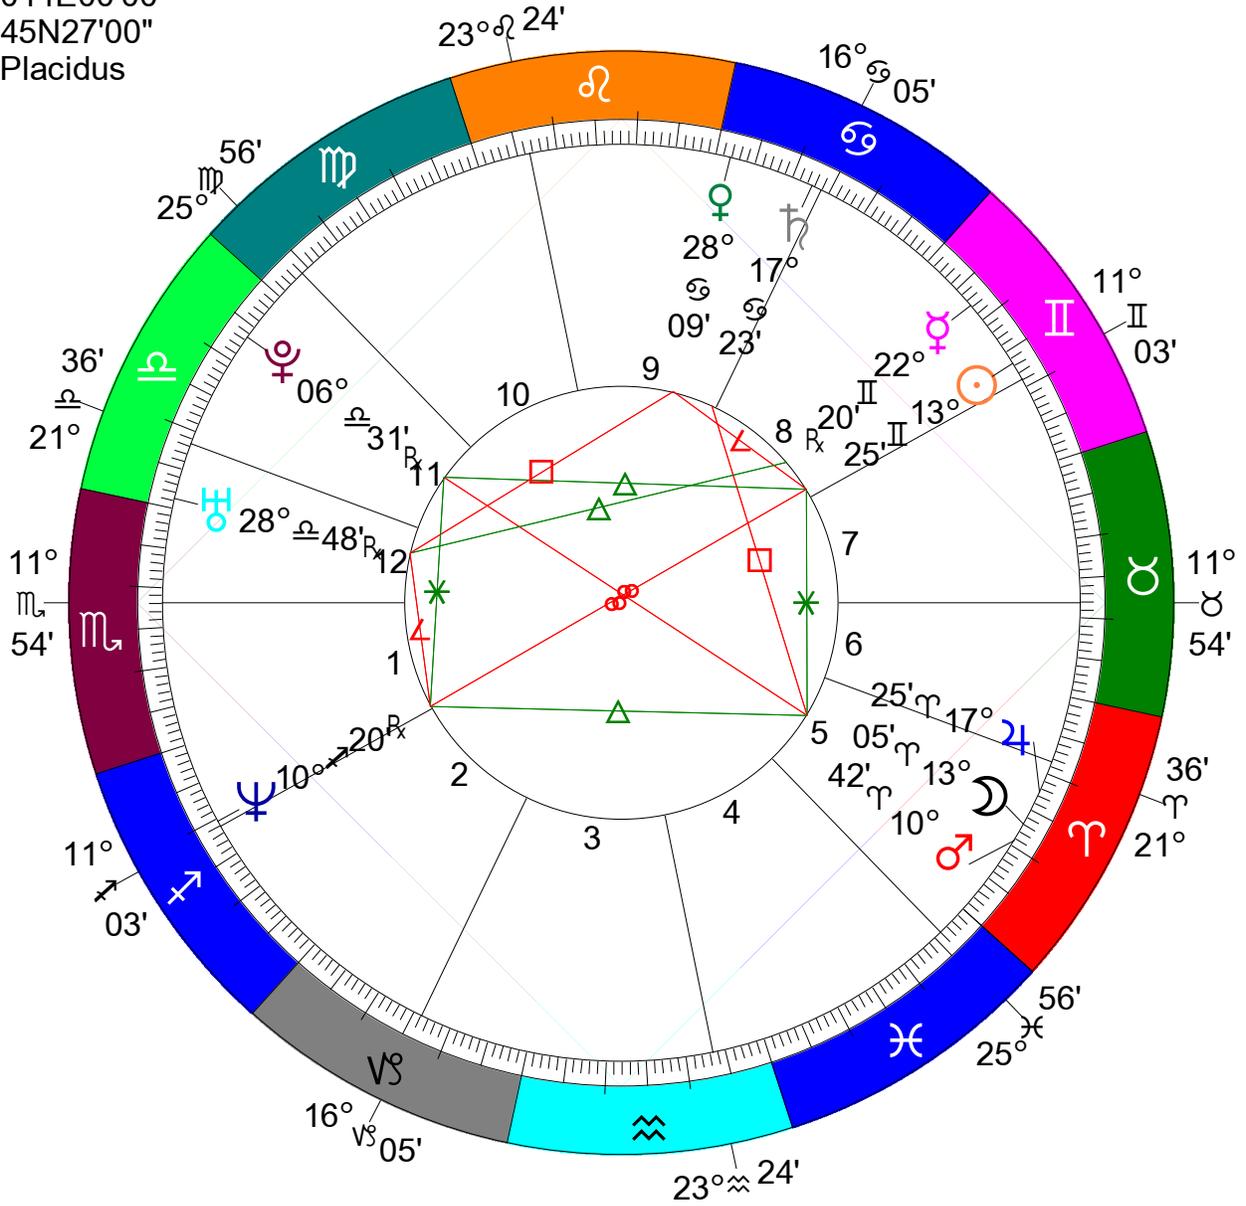

You can find your head exploding here, so full of new ideas and expanded approaches that you won't know which to put forth next. That's a creative challenge most people would die for, but it can be to die of as well. First, put your brain in gear before you put your mouth in motion, or all your greatest inspiration will turn into hot air -- at least as other people see it. Sorting out what's truly meaningful and workable from all that is only just wonderful is your goal, so don't be afraid to ask others to slow you down and edit and subsequently preserve your work. You may be too busy talking to be up to the task.

C*C*G Section

Transits to Angles

Location charts respond to transits very much like your natal chart. Although Jupiter, for instance, may not be transiting your natal Ascendant right now, it is transiting your relocated Ascendant somewhere, and that somewhere is likely where you'll easily get a lot of extra attention and enhanced personal prospects if you go there or start doing business with people there. The same goes for the rest of the planets, so you can travel to seek or to escape their transits at the place of your choice.

Progressions to Angles

Although you can't escape your natal progressions, you can go experience them someplace else, particularly where a favorable progressed planet relocates right on an angle and thus gets extra emphasis. As with transits, your progressed relocation paths will tell you where it's happening according to the nature of each planet. Being that they are progressions rather than transits, the effect will be more internal than external, but noticeable all the same.

C*C*G Planets on Angles

Any planet on one of the angles (Ascendant, MC, Descendant, IC) of your relocation chart will be greatly strengthened when you are at the place of relocation, very much like if it were on the angles of your natal chart. If the Sun is on an angle, you'll have more confidence; if Mars is there you'll have more energy, and so on. Moreover, you don't have to actually go there to get the effect. Having a planet on a relocated angle will accentuate that place for you even if you are only doing business with people there over the phone. You have an accentuated quality to people in such places that you may not have elsewhere.

Transit Jupiter On DS (Strong)

This year is the perfect time to be here for you, as you'll appear to represent the very latest, newest, coolest thing happening around these parts. It's all about how you look in person, so dress the part and perfect the lines that get the most applause. Next year you cash in on it here and replay a similar game two time zones east of here. And, oh, watch your weight.

Transit Neptune Ssq DS (Medium)

You may find that your image doesn't always slip easily into the current local fantasy right now, and as a result you may be seen as an outsider or an interloper. It's about how you physically present yourself, and there's little to be done except to demonstrate that you can't judge a book by its cover.

Transit Neptune Qcx MC (Medium)

Your particular set of accomplishments are seen here for some considerable time as being rather ideal and fitting right in to the local drama. That may not actually be the case, but why fight a good thing if playing along can benefit you and educate you at the same time? Embrace the dream and see how you like it.

Transit Uranus Sqr MC (Medium)

Blows and buffets to your reputation may be the norm here for a couple of years, so be prepared to defend what you've done and who you are in the face of stray assaults from unexpected quarters. You're too far out or not far out enough -- that may be the cry -- so just be true to yourself and let the chips fall accordingly. This is a relatively lengthy but temporary influence for this location that is rather destabilizing. You may not know what to expect.

Progressed Mars On DS (Medium)

The everyday personality you would find yourself displaying here is getting a high-octane boost, which makes you a lot more likely to get out there and push both physically and emotionally. It's the beginning of a long-term feeling that's been bubbling under here, so expect things to pick up for quite a while.

Progressed Venus Sxt AS (Medium)

You like what you look like here this year, and it shows. It's not so much narcissism -- just that you feel good about yourself and you don't need a mirror to check whether you appear the way you ought to. By the same token, when you emit that feeling, it bubbles up in others and you become the object of desire.
